

Emneevaluering fra emneansvarlig

Emnekode: Psyk200

Navn på emne: Ledelsepsykologi

År/semester: 2022 / V

Emneansvarlig: Guy Notelaers

Innledning:

The course consisted of 15 lectures and several article meetings (PBL-like presentations). The course was evaluated as good or very good by more 8 out of 10 respondents.

Studentevalueringer:

Metode / gjennomføring

This course is obligatory course with some obligatory participation and activities (article meetings).
Fordeling av grade ?

The questionnaire based evaluation had only a response rate of 50%.

Faglærers oppsummering av studentene sine tilbakemelding fra studentevaluering

The course is evaluated well. Lectures were seen a relevant and useful by almost all. The seminars were almost as good evaluated than the lectures. During the seminars more than 30% of the respondents is not happy with the the involvement of the other students. The feedback could have been better according to 1 out 5 respondents. Articles could be better connected to the topics dealt with in the Lectures for some. Exam was close to the bacheloroppgave delivery date. Oppmøtekrav should be noted by all teachers and not just some.

Faglærers kommentarer til studentevalueringen

Faglærers vurdering av:

Undervisnings- og vurderingsformer

The question for the seminars is how to engage students in reading and debating articles without sticks and carrots? No cost for free-riding can fail to motivate to do what is expected.

Litteraturliste / anbefalt litteratur

Some of the articles should be moved to the leadership course from psyk210. This would offer the opportunity more familiar with recent research leadership field. Litteraturliste must be checked with akademia.

Vurdering av om framdrift og opplegg er i samsvar med målene for emne og program

The course is important for students to acquire and express academic reasoning. That being said, the discussions this year were a bit meagre. Another covid-kull? So next year the discussion has to be even more guided by the seminar leader.
